

2 Thessalonians 1:1-4, 11-12

Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy,

To the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:

Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

We must always give thanks to God for you, brothers and sisters, as is right, because your faith is growing abundantly, and the love of everyone of you for one another is increasing. Therefore we ourselves boast of you among the churches of God for your steadfastness and faith during all your persecutions and the afflictions that you are enduring.

To this end we always pray for you, asking that our God will make you worthy of his call and will fulfill by his power every good resolve and work of faith, so that the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you, and you in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Psalm 119:137-144

- ¹³⁷ You are righteous, O LORD, *
and upright are your judgments.
- ¹³⁸ You have issued your decrees *
with justice and in perfect faithfulness.
- ¹³⁹ My indignation has consumed me, *
because my enemies forget your words.
- ¹⁴⁰ Your word has been tested to the uttermost, *
and your servant holds it dear.
- ¹⁴¹ I am small and of little account, *
yet I do not forget your commandments.
- ¹⁴² Your justice is an everlasting justice *
and your law is the truth.
- ¹⁴³ Trouble and distress have come upon me, *
yet your commandments are my delight.
- ¹⁴⁴ The righteousness of your decrees is everlasting; *
grant me understanding, that I may live.

Luke 19:1-10

Jesus entered Jericho and was passing through it. A man was there named Zacchaeus; he was a chief tax collector and was rich. He was trying to see who Jesus was, but on account of the crowd he could not, because he was short in stature. So he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore tree to see him, because he was going to pass that way. When Jesus came to the place, he looked up and said to him, "Zacchaeus, hurry and come down; for I must stay at your house today." So he hurried down and was happy to welcome him. All who saw it began to grumble and said, "He has gone to be the guest of one who is a sinner." Zacchaeus stood there and said to the Lord, "Look, half of my possessions, Lord, I will give to the poor; and if I have defrauded anyone of anything, I will pay back four times as much." Then Jesus said to him, "Today salvation has come to this house, because he too is a son of Abraham. For the Son of Man came to seek out and to save the lost."
